Your Guide: Andrew Johnstone

Andrew is a former long-time Senior Producer of the FIBA Basketball World television program and one of Australia's most experienced and well-travelled basketball journalists, commentators and administrators. He has covered many of the biggest names in the game and been courtside for some of the most high-profile events in international basketball over the past three decades, including three NBA Finals, the 2008 Beijing Olympics, six FIBA World Cups and five EuroBaskets. Andrew is a passionate storyteller, a long-time observer and fan of Spanish basketball and a frequent visitor to Spain, where he covered EuroBasket 2007, the 2014 FIBA World Cup, the 2018 FIBA World Championship for Women and Spanish Liga Endesa competition. Also a former Head of Broadcast and Game Operations at the East Asia Super League, Assistant Editor of One on One magazine and General Manager of Communications for Australia's National Basketball League, Andrew lives in Melbourne, Australia, and works as Communications Manager at Camberwell Basketball and as a freelance journalist and public relations consultant.
